Abolition Vandalism on the Coast.

From the Savannah Republican.]

DESTRUCTION OF SALT WORKS—STEALING NEGROES.

A whole regiment of negroes, commanded by white officers, from Port Royal, landed at Fernandina on the 31 instant, it is thought to be for the purpose of relieving a white regiment stationed at that place.

The steamer Darlington suddenly crossed over to St. Mary's with a company of negroes, after a cruise in destroying the salt works on the Florida coast South of Fernandina. There were at the time of her arrival, but three old ladies, the only white persons who remained with a few negroes belonging to them, at St. Mary's. The negroes were taken from them and forced on board the Darlington. In making the seizure, the officers asserted they would seize all they can lay hold of. A Mrs. Mock being threatened by a negro with bayoneting, appealed to his Captain for protection, and received for answer that no protection would be given her unless she went with them.

The picket on duty at St. Mary's failed to give notice of the approach of the enemy.

On Thursday, the 6th, an Abolition steamer visited Darien very early in the morning. After firing three 4-pound guns, they landed and broke open the store of Lieut. Simon Pate, of the militia, and took off Pate and his effects; leaving but a barrel of whisky and some articles of no value. Pate is looked upon as a suspicious character, as he was seen drinking with the Abolitionists as the boat left the wharf.—He had ample time to make good his escape, if he wished to leave before the steamer approached.

The Abolitionists fired upon Dr. Holmes, who was in Darien professionally visiting the sick at that place, but without hitting him.

A force was pushed forward from a camp near Darien to meet them, but did not succeed in reaching that place until the enemy had left, as after committing what depredations they could they moved off hurriedly.

On Friday last two of the enemy's steamers went up the Sapelo river. After landing at Reuben King's plantation, they robbed him of his negroes, about 62 or 63 in number, leaving but one with him. Mr King is near 90 years of age, and very feeble. His wife is also very old and feeble, being scarcely able to leave her room. Mr. King would have also been taken with his negroes but for the entreaties of his daughter. The Abolitionists gave him one day to remove, and threatened that they will burn the place if he does not go.

The enemy then went further up the Sapelo and captured Colonel D. McDonough and a few of his negroes. They also burnt out the place of Col. C. A. Hopkins. They next visited Capt. Brailsford's plantation, where they were met by Captains Brailsford's and Hughes' commands, when an encounter took place.—The loss of the enemy could not be ascertained, as their barges were highly boarded over the sides. Our boys behaved well and sustained no loss. The Abolitionists were satisfied with their reception, and beat a hasty retreat.

We learn that the miserable wretches, not satisfied with stealing negroes and other property, have destroyed the orange groves in Florida by cutting down the trees, besides committing other acts of vandalism in the destruction of private property.

YANKEE CRUELTY TO NEGROES.—A correspondent of the New York Tribune writing from Newbern, N. C., under date of October 18th, gives following picture of the condition of the negroes in that Department:

"The situation of the poor, unhappy blacks in this Department, fed though they are by Union bounty, is such as should excite the sympathy of every Christian man. I am sorry to say that they are treated with great sternness and severity, amounting to positive cruelty, by many of our soldiers, who seem to regard them as hardly better than beasts. Not a few of our officers conduct themselves in the most unfeeling manner toward these unfortunate creatures, and are, in fact, ostentations in expressing their hatred and contempt for the "d—d nigger." It is a sad truth that the Northern pro-slavery prejudice, where it exists, is much more harsh and intolerant than the traditional feeling in favor of the institution entertained by the native Southerners; and the most despicable form of its expression is when it is vented upon the poor African himself.—How any gentleman of refined sentiments could act the petty tyrant and oppressor towards these poor, sensitive people, fond of praise and keenly alive to censure as they are, is more than I can understand.

A CONFLICT OF AUTHORITY.—The Chattanooga Rebel contains the following announcement:

Governor Brown, of Georgia, has again come in conflict with Confederate authority by the action of the Superintendant of the Western & Atlantic Railroad, in refusing transportation for some fifiy barrels of whiskey, in accordance with a proclamation of the Governor in relation thereto.

We understand that an agent is on the way to Georgia to take possession of this road for the enforcement of this transportation, as well as for other purposes. We await the issue with some curiosity, if things are as we understand them.

Extract from a Letter from Bermuda.

ST. GEORGES, BERMUDA ISLANDS, October 22, 1862.

The people of these islands are strongly in favor of the South, and very anxious for our success.

Admiral Wilkes had no attention whatever paid him when here, and was at last ordered off by the Governor. In future, Yankee men-of-war are forbidden to enter this port but once in three months, and will not be allowed to coal here. This order will make it rather difficult for them to blockade this port.

There are now three British steamers in port loaded with arms and ammunition for the Confederate States. Last Sunday one of them floated the "Bars and Star" all day from the masthead, as she lay, within two hundred yards of the office of the U. States Consul. This official of Uncle Sam is not in good odor with the people here, and has rather a hard time of it. The people will have nothing to do with him. He is quite isolated, and must keep himself very close, for I have not yet had the honor of seeing Mr. Lincoln's representative, although our residences are but a few paces apart. R.

Mobile Advertiser & Register, Nov. 5.

GEN. MCCLELLAN'S ARMY.—The statement which reached us by telegraph from Fredericksburg, a few days ago, that McClellan had been transferred from the command of the Army of the Potomac to the command in chief at Washington, is not confirmed by the latest Northern papers, and, we presume, is without foundation.—The New York Herald gives the following as the present organization of McClellan's army:

The army of the Potomac; under the command of General George B. McClellan, will, in future, consist of three grand armies, nine corps, thirty divisions, seventy brigades. The first grand army will consist of the corps d'armee of Major Generals Reynolds, (late Hooker,) Fitz John Porter and W. B. Franklin, and will be commanded by the Senior Major-General, Joseph Hooker. The second army will consist of the corps d'armee of Major-Generals Couch, (late Sumner,) O. G. Wilcox, (late Burnside,) Slocum, (late Banks,) and will be commanded by Senior Major-General Ambrose Everett Burnside. The third grand army will consist of the corps d'armee of Major-General Cox and two others now organized, and to whom permanent commanders have not been assigned by the President. This army will be commanded by Senior Major-General Edwin V. Sumner.

It is a little remarkable that whilst the Southern papers are universally down upon Bragg, those of the North present exactly the same front against Buell. Who's to blame?

[Chattanooga Rebel.

Our cotemporary is wrong in stating that the Southern papers are "universally down on Bragg." Since the facts in reference to Gen. Bragg's late expedition to Kentucky have become known, even the editorial Field Marshals, who were so prompt to censure him, have ceased their denunciations, and the public at large regard his campaign, under all the circumstances, as a success. We are gratified to know that many of our leading papers have not only not joined in the hue and cry against a faithful and gallant officer, but have vindicated him from the unjust aspersions of ignorant and imperinent critics.—Savannah (Ga.) News.

SOUTHERN EXPRESS COMPANY.—Before the war it was frequently remarked by citizens and strangers that Danville was the only place of its size in which the old "Adams Express Company" did not have an agency and an office. It was regarded then as a matter of great regret, as for the lack of this accommodating agency persons desiring to send packages to points beyond Richmond or to receive them thence was subjected to the delay and charge of trans-shipment at Richmond. We are happy to announce now that the "Southern Express Company," which supplies the place of the old "Adams Express" in the Confederate States, has opened an agency here, and is prepared to receive packages to be delivered at any point in the Confederacy. The office of the Company is at the cornor of Main and Harrison streets, just opposite the Masonic Temple.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

TO THE MANUFACTURERS OF THE SOUTHERN CONFEDERACY.

I have a Receipt to make a liquid to mix ¾ and ¾ with any kind of Oil (except pure Lard,) which is equal to Spurm Oil for Machinery. This liquid can be made at a cost of five dollars per barrel of 36 gallons. It can be made in 30 minutes and be ready for use in 4 hours. This Oil will not create any gum, but will eat away all gum that has been created by other Oils. It is better than Spurm Oil for Machinery of quick motion. It is the very article for Cotton and Paper Mills. Any one that wants the receipt can address me at this place and I will give any information concerning it, price, &c., &c.

Commendable.

The ladies of the Methodist Church in Chattannooga, have taken the carpets from their house of worship and given it to the soldiers for blankets. The Rebel asks, "can a people be conquered when the ladies are so patriotic."

From Gen. Lee's Command.

The Lynchburg Virginian of Friday has the following from our army in Northern Virginia:

The latest authentic intelligence from our army in Northern Virginia is, that the enemy are massing a large force in the lower part of Loudon and Fauquier counties, and that there are strong indications of an advance of the Abolitionists in force. We are informed that our pickets are engaged in skirmishing daily. On Tuesday last a cavalry force of the enemy advanced to Warrenton and our force stationed there being greatly outnumbered, fell back after a slight skirmish, and the enemy took possession of the town. Our troops being reinforced by the 13th Virginia cavalry, charged upon them and recaptured it and up to Wednesday held possession.

On the same day one of our forage trains, guarded by a detachment of the 4th and 5th Virginia Cavalry, and four pieces of artillery, numbering in all about 500 men, were attacked at Markham Station on the Manassas Gap Railroad, by two thousand of the enemy's cavalry. Two pieces of our artillery were captured, but by a bold charge of our cavalry the guns were retaken.

The enemy believing they were outnumbered, retreated without much effort to retain the guns.

The train suffered no injury, and the only loss we sustained was two or three horses killed.

It was reported at Culpeper C. H. yesterday, that a force of the enemy occupied Amissville, Rappahannock county.

The report we published yesterday of Gen. A. P. Hill's battle with the enemy is confirmed by later reports. It is stated that the enemy were encountered on Monday at Berry's Ferry, on the Shenandoah River, and driven back after a severe engagement.

The Most Backward State in the Union.

We take the following from the New York "World:"

"Massachusetts, according to the official report just issued, is still 19,080 short of its quota, although fully half of those recruited were for only nine months. This makes the Old Bay State' the most backward of any in the Union. Connecticut has filled her quotas by draft, and the other New England State will do so during coming week."

Massachusetts is the greatest Abolition State. She favored the policy that brought on the war, and now declines to fight it through.—Cin. Enq.

The above complaint of Massachusetts from her present associates, is perhaps not wholly just. She is doubtless deficient in soldiers as stated; but then, she has probably made it up in contractors. And besides if her army roll is a little scant now she will be as far ahead on the pension roll as she is now behind. In other words, Massachusetts will probably be true to her past.

☞ The negro question in Illinois is agitating the State to a great degree.—Meetings have been held at Pittsfield, Pike county, and Broadville, Logan county, in which the people protest against the Federal infraction of the State constitution.—The people of the Fifth Judicial district have decided that persons with negro blood cannot be employed as teachers in the public schools.

The Potomac Armies.

All the signs indicate, we think, an early collision between the contending armies of the Potomac. McClellan is evidently advancing in great force in several columns, with a view of striking another great blow for the possession of the Confederate capitol, before winter sets in. This effort will be a last and desperate one, and it may require all the genius and gallantry of our armies to thwart his designs. But that it will be done, we have no sort of doubt. General Lee will prove himself equal to all emergencies, and we confidently believe McClellan is doomed to another bitter reverse.

Lynchburg Republican, 10th.

From General Lee's Army.

The rumors from General Lee's army, Saturday night, were interesting and exciting. Heavy skirmishing is daily occurring in Fauquier and Loudoun, and it is reported that the enepny is in great force in those counties.

There is a rumor, which receives no credit, that the division of General Longstreet was attacked on Thursday, near the Rappahannock river, in Fauquirer, and rather roughly handled, barely maintaining its position at nightfall on that day, and suffering some loss. As we have stated above, no credit is attached to this rumor, and we mention it only as being in circulation.

Relative to the fight on Monday last, in Clarke county, we have the highest authority for saying it was a perfect massacre of the enemy. The exact locality of the fight was at Castleman's Ferry, on the Shenandoah river.

It seems that the enemy, whose main force is believed to have crossed the Potomac into Loudoun county, attempted to throw a large body of troops across the Shenandoah at the point designated, with the supposed intention of moving upon Winchester. Castleman's Ferry is on the direct road from Leesburg to Winchester, and about 17 miles from the latter point, and about three miles distant from Snicksville, Loudoun county, which is just at the foot of the Blue Ridge. A brigade of Gen. A. P. Hill's division guarded the Ferry on the west side of the river, and the Federal forces approached from the eastern or Loudoun side. When the enemy come within range our pieces were opened on them, and a brisk artillery duel of three fourths of an hour ensued, which resulted in the complete repulse of the Yankees with heavy loss. After their retreat, they sent in a flag of truce to bury their dead, and remove their wounded, permission to do, which was granted them.

There were reports in the city Saturday of a fight at Front Royal, but close enquiry of passengers who came through from Winchester, having left that place on Thursday, failed to elicit any confirmation of the rumor. And we may add that they express a disbelief of its truth from their knowledge of the position of our forces. They think it probable that the fight in Clarke gave rise to the report of that at Front Royal, the persons reporting the latter being mistaken in the locality.

On the Upper Potomac all was quiet, the only Yankee force known to be on the south side of the river is the garrison at Harper's Ferry. Our cavalry continue to picket at Charlestown and the neighborhood of Shepherdstown.

Lynchburg Republican, 10th.

FROM NORTHERN VIRGINIA.—Passengers by the Central cars last evening report a skirmish near the town of Warrenton on Saturday between a body of the Hampton Legion and some of Seigle's cavalry—result unknown.

Upon the same authority it is stated that Seigle's command was advancing upon Warrenton, and that a large force of the Abolitionists had re-occupied Fredericksburg. The telegram from Fredericksburg, to be found in another column, disposes satisfactotily of this last piece of news.

An employed on the Orange & Alexandria road, who reached here yesterday at noon, reports that the enemy is rearling up the railroad about Manassas. We have no dnubt that this is a fact. But they are leaving the ralls, not for the destruction of the road, but to after the gauge to suit the size their locomotives and hinder us from using it, should it ever again fal into our hands.—Richmond Examiner.

A Dash into Fredericksburg by the Enemy.

For some days past, the authorities of Fredericksburg have been anticipating a visit from the enemy, but being but poorly sustained against such an event by the presence of any formidable force, they were ill prepared for even a slight realization of their fears. About daybreak yesterday (Sunday) morning a company of seventy-five Federal cavalry, coming from the direction of Dumfries, dashed into the town, down the main street, and drew up in line of battle in front of the Richmond and Fredericksburg depot, while a detachment was sent to depredate upon certain stores in the vicinity. The intelligence being immediately conveyed to Major Critcher, commander of the cavalry battalion stationed at the post, he dispatched a company to the spot. A short skirmish ensued, which resulted in the dispersion and retreat of the Federals, leaving one dead, several wounded and ten prisoners in our hands. They crossed the river in their retreat in the wildest confusion, and, had our force been sufficient, would all have been captured. Our loss was one man killed and several wounded. The enemy succeeded in carrying off a small amount of plunder from one of the stores.

The early hour and the virtually undefended condition of the city does not render this "feat" of the Yankees as daring as it was audacious. They had but a short road and a clear one to travel; expected no resistance and met with but little, came in and went away, no wiser and somewhat worse off than before they started.—Richmond Enquirer.

M'CLELLAN.—A California Congressman said in New York a few days ago, that certain parties had Lincoln's promise in writing to remove McClellan as soon as the New York Election was over.

From the Army of Northern Virginia.

Significant movements are progressive along the entire line of our army under General Lee. Stirring perhaps startling events, seem to be rapidly approaching, promising, in reality, a short and decisive winter campaign."

It was reported on yesterday that Gen. Jackson was upon the verge of battle in the Shenandoah, with a greatly superior force of the enemy. No confirmation of the reported fight at Front Royal has reached us.

In the course of a few days, a considerable change will doubtless take place in the present nominally inactive state of affairs.—Richmond Enquirer.

The Last Raids of Morgan—Difficulty in Catching Him.

A letter dated Cincinnati, the 21st ult., says that Buell with his grand army, 140,000 strong, was returning to Louisville, and receiving all the abuse which is the result of a failure. The letter acknowledges that Bragg took over 4,000 wagons of provisions away with him, and the Federals only succeeded in re-capturing forty. The letter adds:

The rebel partisan, Morgan, has performed deeds which rival Stuart's raid into Pennsylvania. He has trotted round Buell as Stuart did around McClellan. He made a dash into Kentucky, and after [illegible] into Marseilles, then round the Kentucky river to Lawrenceburg, and swept on to Bardstown. At Cox Creek he came upon a wagon train and burned eighty-one wagons, taking the teamsters and guards prisoners. Thirty of the wagons were empty, the others laden with supplies for Wood's division. Pushing on towards Bardstown he captured another large train and burned it, and when last heard from was pushing southwest, evidently to destroy the Lebanon Branch Railroad, and then to push on towards Munfordsville and destroy the Nashville Railroad—all of which he will undoubtedly accomplish. The train due last night from Munfordsville is not in.—Probably it is destroyed. He has a force of twelve hundred cavalry. Gen. Dumont is following, but Morgan changes horses continually, while Dumont's are worn down. There is no force in front of Morgan. He can have things all his own way. It is supposed he is aiming for Nashville, and that Bragg is moving with the main part of his army in the same direction.—Gen. Negley is there with about five thousand men.

FROM CANADA.—We yesterday had an interview with a gentleman just from Canada, who informed us that when Brute Butler's "woman's" order was first received in Canada, that a Mr. Bennet, a Yankee, who kept a noted first class Hotel at London, in Canada, publicly endorsed the infamous order at the breakfast table, and that before night forty one British officers who always lodged at this, the best house, ordered their baggage and indignantly left the hotel. He states further that Canada is swarming with organ-grinders, and that they universally commence and quit with Dixie. He thinks the British subjects in Canada strongly sympathize with the South.—Atlanta Confederacy.

RIOT AT NORFOLK.—We learn, on good authority, says the Raleigh State Journal, that a few days ago serious riot at Norfolk, which threatened fearful consequences.

It appears that a large number of stolen and runaway "contrabands," said to be 5,000, were collected on the wharf, for what purpose they did not know. Presently a steamer ran alongside and a movement was made to embark the slaves. They resisted and protested their unwillingness to be taken off. Force was attempted, and a serious riot was the consequence. We have not learned the result.

PROMOTIONS IN N. C. TROOPS.—CORRECTION.—In our paper of yesterday, in a notice of the promotions of N. C. Troops, we were made to say that Lieut Col. Bynum had been promoted to the Colonelcy of the Twelfth regiment, &c. It should have been the Second, and so we wrote it.

[Raleigh State Journal.

BY TELEGRAPH.

From Europe.

RICHMOND, Nov. 10.

The Enquirer has received a copy of the N. Y. World of the 6th inst., which contains the following information:

The Paris journals continue their comments on the late Proclamation of Lincoln.

A correspondent of the World says all the Opposition press still insist that the Proclamation will have a tendency to prolong rather shorten the struggle in which our country is engaged. The Presse in particular, finds fault with it as a nullity act, and says it is unsatisfactory to those who desired to see in it a moral act.

The World's correspondent adds that it will have the slightest effect in either preventing or delaying foreign intervention. That the idea is preposterous, for its effect will rather hasten intervention than otherwise.

Many believe that within the next month the Southern Confederacy will be recognized by both England and France, and that when it comes it will be like a clap of thunder—for that is the way the Emperor has of doing things.

The resignation of M. Thouvenal, Minister of Foreign Affairs, and the appointment of M. Drouin de Thuys in his place, (both of which is announced in the Moniteur,) is generally regarded an unfavorable symptom.

Thouvenal has been invariably opposed to intervention in our affairs, especially to an alliance with England for that purpose, whilst his successor is regarded decidedly Southern in his views.

War News.

RICHMOND, Nov. 10.

The accounts of the Yankee Raid on Fredericksburg are very confused. They certainly evacuated that town however.

The latest Dispatch says the enemy attacked the camp of Col. Critcher's command and captured 25 or 300 men.

A small body of Confederate Cavalry made a dash on the enemy and released the most of them.

The Enquirer estimates the Yankee force largely and says they were routed and retreated in the wildest confusion, leaving their dead and wounded in our hands.

Our loss was one killed and several wounded.

It is reported that the enemy is engaged in tearing up the track of the Rail Road at Manassas.

Sharp skirmishing is reported to have occurred in Fauquier and London counties.

The enemy is making significant movements, which are in progress all along their lines in front of Lee's army, and a battle between Jackson and the enemy is momentarily expected on the Shenandoah.

The Yankees who entered Fredericksburg spoke of the daring and successful raid into Maryland recently made by Gen. Stewart. They also stated that England and France have recognized the Southern Confederacy, but not much importance is attached to their last statement.

Skirmishing is reported near Warrenton between Gen. Hampton and a portion of Siegles Cavalry.

A dispatch from Gainsville says Hay Market, Va., near Warrenton, was burned by Siegles forces on the 4th.

Gen. Corcoran's Legion was to start for Fortress Monroe on the 5th.

Three Massachusetts regiments sailed from Boston for Newbern N. C., on the 5th inst.

The Iron clad steamer Weenoker was launched at New York on the 5th inst.

The Elections.

RICHMOND, Nov. 10.

Northern papers of the 6th are to hand.

Seymour's majority in the State of New York is estimated at 17,000.

The Albany Atlas gives 17 democratic Congressmen. The Assembly stands 57 democrats, 56 republicans and 45 to hear from.

In Wisconsin 2 democrats and 3 republicans have been elected to Congress—one district yet in doubt.

In Missouri the Radical Republican ticket is generally successful. Blairs friends claim his election.

From Richmond,

RICHMOND, Nov. 11.

Heavy commonading was heard all day yesterday at Orange Court House and Gordonsville. The firing was probably between skirmishers or advance guards of the two armies, which may bring on a general engagement.

Seigles Division is reported to be on the South side of the Rappahanock.

The Yankees made a raid up Chuckatuck Creek in Nansamond county, from Suffolk, and committed the grossest outrages, shelling, burning and plundering the houses of peaceable citizens. They also arrested and carried off Messrs. Daniel Shephard and John Bunkley.

Farmertown and Haymarket, in Fauquier county, have been burnt by the Yankees.

The weather is clear and pleasant.

Skirmishing.

RICHMOND, Nov, 11.

Passengers by the Central Railroad confirm the reports of skirmishing near Culpeper Court House. No movement of any importance have, however, taken place.

Exciting movements are being made in the neighborhood of Front Royal.

All quiet at Fredericksburg.

An Important Decision.

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga., Nov. 11.

The Supreme court of Georgia this day decided, unanimously, on a case brought before it from the Ocmulgee Circuit, Jenkins, J., delivering the opinion of the Court, that the Conscript Law is Constitutional.

From the United States.

RICHMOND, Nov. 11.

The Northern press are still commenting on the result of the late elections.

The Tribune says, never was a greater or more patriotic party doomed to bear up against such combinations of adverse influences as the Republican and Union War Democrats.

The World says the Empire State sent 200,000 of her sons to fight the battles of the nation against traitors who were stabbing her at the heart, but with undrained vigor has smitten to dust the miscreants who strove to cheat her remaining children of their liberties. She thunders her demand for a more vigorous prosecution of the war and warns the President that the Constitution and Laws must be sacredly upheld or else there will come anarchy and night.

The Herald says the State of New York has given the finishing blow to Radical Abolitionism. We may now expect a reaction in favor of the Union and a speedy end of the rebellion.

The Times says it trusts the result of the election will not be regarded sufficient reason for the withdrawal of the Empire State from the support of the Government although the vote indicates dissatisfaction here and in the West with the Administration.

The Post says Ohio, Indiana, Pennsylvania and New York weary of the war? Are they willing to say: "Wayward sisters, depart in peace!" Not at all. All the lesson is that the war once undertaken must be fought according to war principles, not according to the interests of localities or classes, and that the civil rights of citizens must not be trifled with.

The Express says the New York election does not mean any aid or comfort to the enemy, nor hostility to the President. It means a just and Constitutional war—that it shall be conducted according to form and civilization to put down rebellion and restore the Union.

The Herald's washington correspondent says Lincoln takes the defeat of his party very much to heart and it is believed an importan, change is about to take place in the Yankee Cabinet.

Stanton and Smith are expected to resign.

The Monitor is now lying at Washington Favy Yard, where some of her defective plates are being replaced.

Buell is to be tried by a Military Court Martial for his failure to capture Bragg's army.

McClellan took possession of Ashby's Gap on Wednesday, our forces retiring.

Plesonton and Averill with cavalry and Artillery, reoccupied Piedmont on Tuesday night. Pushing on they took the town of Workham after a spirited skirmish. The approach to Manassas Gap and Chester Grp, on the left of the Blue Ridge, is now commanded by them.

A Washington dispatch to the Times, dated the 5th inst. says dispatches of the greatest importance, which may effect an entire change in the whole aspect of the War were to-day submitted by the French Legation to Secretary Seward.

The Times has the following paragraph in relation to the "290:" Information has been received that Capt. Semmes, has disregarded the Certificates of a British Consul and in spite of a British Consular Seal, regularly affixed to papers, establishing British ownership of property on board a vessel captured by him, had deliberately proceeded to burn that property which the vessel contained. The British Consul of this city, we are informed, immediately took steps to represent this transaction most forcibly to Admiral Milne, commanding Her Majesty's British squadron, when the Admiral ordered three British men-of-war in pursuit of the Alabama, with instructions to overhaul her and convey her to a British port where her violations of international law may be inquired into.

NOTE.—The above in reference to Commodore Semmes is all bosh. That is our opinion.—ED. BULLETIN.

To COTTON AND WOOLLEN SPINNERS!

The Manufacturing and Free Trade Association of the Confederate States will assemble at Augusta, Georgia, on Wednesday, November 19th,

AT 11 O'CLOCK A. M.

All Cotton and Woollen Manufacturers, as well as those who are engaged in the manufacture of general materials and clothing, are particularly invited to attend, as it may be necessary to [illegible] of the Association. The subject of obtaining our Goods in the hands of [illegible] at reduced rates; the best mode of procuring supplies to keep us in full employment, together with many other matters of serious moment, will be subjects of consideration for the Convention, and it is hoped that every establishment in the Confederacy will be represented.

Manufacturers will be expected to bring with them samples and statements of cost of production, based on Balance sheets of the last twelve months, of the past six months, and of the past 90 days, for such statements are the only means by which the real cost of production can be arrived at. They will, also, be expected to bring statements of the quantity and kinds of goods which they have furnished the Government since the war commenced; also, the quantity of the various kinds of Goods manufactured by them; also, a statement of the number of Spindles and Looms in operation, with the length of time that said machinery has been running.

(Signed) WM. GREGG, President
M. and F. P. Association.
